

You've hidden your pregnancy and feel that you have no place to turn. But there is something that you can do.

You can safely and anonymously leave your newborn child at any hospital emergency room, fire station with Safely Surrendered Baby logo or Orangewood Children's Home at 401 The City Drive, Orange, CA

SAFE HAVEN SITE

Safely Surrendered Baby

County of Orange

Social Services Agency
Health Care Agency

Children's Services Coordination Committee
Orange County Fire Chiefs Association

Children & Families
Commission of Orange County

State of California

www.babysafe.ca.gov

Tool-free Hotline
1 (877) BABY SAF
1 (877) 222-9723

No Shame, No Blame, No Names!

Give Your Baby A Chance For Life!

You can safely and anonymously leave your newborn child at any hospital emergency room, fire station with Safely Surrendered Baby logo,  or Orangewood Children's Home at 401 The City Drive, Orange, CA

Graphic Design and Layout produced by the HCA Desktop Publishing Unit - a part of HCA
Public Information & Communications

GIVE THEM A CHANCE . . .

A hospital emergency room, fire station with Safely Surrendered Baby logo or Orangewood Children's Home will take your newborn baby (up to 3 days old). You will not be identified or prosecuted. Don't throw your baby away!

. . . A CHANCE FOR LIFE!

A message from the Social Services Agency

Child welfare workers will place your baby in a licensed foster home while finding the best adoptive family. You can change your mind within 14 days.

A new law lets anyone with legal custody of a newborn baby (up to 3 days old) give the baby to a hospital emergency room, fire station with Safely Surrendered Baby logo or Orangewood Children's Home staff, without identification or police involvement.

Don't throw your baby away.

Give them a chance for life!

Locations where you can take your newborn baby include:

- Any hospital emergency room, or
- Fire stations displaying the Safely Surrendered Baby logo.
- Orangewood Children's Home
401 The City Drive
Orange, California 92868
Phone (714) 935-7080

What will happen at the hospital?

Newborn babies up to three days old will be taken care of, given medical treatment and placed in a safe home. It is strictly confidential. You will know that your baby has been taken care of.